READING THE EVIDENCE

An internal affairs file is not proof of sustained misconduct. An arrest affidavit is an allegation, not a conviction. Source pages and page numbers are identified so readers can return to the originals.

1. On August 28, 2017 Lt. Barone received an AIC from Lt. David Simmons dated August 22, 2017. The complainant, Mr. Michael King alleged Corporal Cody Jones was on his property for intentional harassment and was rude and unprofessional. Lt. Simmons began to investigate this accusation and spoke with Mr. King over the telephone. Mr. King thought Lt. Simmons was dodging his responsibility and told him he would file the complaint with someone else if need be. Lt. Simmons assured Mr. King that was not the case and he was only seeking clarification. Mr. King told Lt. Simmons he felt Cpl. Jones intentionally decided to harass him rather than let another deputy or his sergeant handle the call. Mr. King believes this was due to their past dealings with Cpl. Jones.
2. Lt. Barone interviewed Corporal Cody Jones, Mr. Michael King and Mrs. Stephanie King during the investigation. All audio/video and reports pertaining to this incident were reviewed. The details of this investigation are outlined in the attached IA Case Report.

On 12/04/2014 I was requested via Dispatch to contact Robin Honaker regarding a complaint against D/S Jones and D/S Sullivan arresting Robin's mother, Brenda Phillips. Upon contacting Robin she immediately began a long, rambling statement that both D/S Sullivan and D/S Jones needed to be reprimanded and terminated for putting their hands on Robin's mother, Brenda, because "no man should ever put their hands on my mother". Robin further informed me that all of Cherokee County was corrupt and for that reason, and because she has an active warrant for her arrest, she would not be returning. Robin then insisted deputies had pushed Robin's son, who was at the scene and on the phone with Robin at the time of the incident, and her son was disabled by _____ and _____. Robin further informed me she was positive there was no way her mother could have stolen money from the Salvation Army kettle she was maintaining because all of the kettles are padlocked. As a result of this information Robin was insistent the arrest was illegal and it needed to be fixed or the news media would be called to report the incident. During much of the first few minutes I was unable to understand many of the things that
