

CASE NO. 001-606-11-07

CASE SUMMARY

This individual is a Candidate for Corrections Officer Certification and was employed with a law enforcement agency from 01-02-04 until resignation on 12-16-04.

On 09-26-07, the District Attorney's Office advised P.O.S.T. said candidate had been indicted of Violation of Oath of Office and Extortion, and his/her trial was pending.

The indictment indicates the crimes occurred on 12-12-04, while said candidate was employed as a Correctional Officer.

On 11-20-07, said candidate was found Guilty of Violation of Oath of Office and Officer Improperly Influencing another Officer or Employee, both felonies, by a jury, and was sentenced to 10 years, five to serve. There was a Directed Verdict of Not Guilty regarding the charge of Theft by Extortion.

Said candidate is presumably in the custody of the Department of Corrections.
